Samhain almost!

An evening of traditional Irish music and song. Meaning "Summer's End" and pronounced saah-win or saa-ween, 'Samhain' is a Gaelic festival marking the end of the harvest season and beginning of winter or darker-half of the year. In the northern hemisphere, it is held on 1st November, but with celebrations beginning on the evening of 31st October, as the Celtic day began and ended at sunset. COVID Rule of 6 applies (see below)
